• Engaging in training related to not only diversity and inclusion but to AA/EEO and civil rights.
• Communicating internally with our faculty and staff our commitment to non-discrimination.
What NIFA is looking for

• Whether Extension policies and program delivery have the effect of denying minority group members equal access to Extension benefits and services.

• Whether Extension services offered are furnished in a different way to some customers because of their race, color, national origin, gender, or disability.

• If programs and related activities, including educational methods, are planned to indiscriminately reach potential customers of all races, social, and economic levels in the state.

• If staff members are providing assistance to any organization that excludes any individual or group from membership and/or participation because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

• Whether the state Extension system for collecting and reporting program participant data (clientele) is utilized for program outreach to under-served groups and for measuring parity of participation of minority and non-minority beneficiaries.
Agreement of Understanding and Compliance with Civil Rights Laws

This document must be signed by a member of any agency, organization, club, group, or other entity who wishes to enter into a relationship with Ohio State University Extension and its employees for services. Services include but are not limited to training, workshops, seminars, grant projects, talks, etc.

By signing this agreement the agency, organization, club, group or other entity understands and agrees to abide by the federal, state, and local laws that prohibit discrimination based on race, skin color, national origin, religion, age, disability, sex, veteran status, and sexual orientation as written in the provisions of Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Section 605 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. This means that any programs, seminars, training, or grants written are open to all people.

By signing this document, we the undersigned understand and agree to comply with the policy of Ohio State University Extension and the United States Department of Agriculture regarding the provisions of the aforementioned titles and acts.
